

*The Town of Hudson presents
 A Double Lobster Bake
 at The York River Landing With Visits to Stonewall Kitchen and York Beach (Short Sands, Goldenrod)
 Monday, June 22, 2015
 $80.00 per person*

The tour begins at Stonewall Kitchen Factory and Company Store located in York, Maine. This unique place offers a huge and delectable variety of jams and jellies, sauces, (which you may sample) as well as interesting items of cookware, cook books, soaps, etc. They also have a café, bakery, and deli. You may see different jams and jellies being packaged in the jelly factory also known as the “jolly factory.” Next, you will go to the York River Landing, located right on the York River where you will enjoy a delicious double lobster bake. Formally the old Bos’n’s Landing, this stylish restaurant offers farm to table fresh local ingredients to serve their patrons. Your double lobster bake will include clam chowder, steamers, corn on the cob, roasted red potatoes, watermelon, iced tea, coffee, and a choice of 2 One Pound Lobsters or Steak Tips. After your delectable lobster bake, you will go to York Beach at Shorts Sands. There are all kinds of shops, the beach, and the Goldenrod located here. Enjoy Maine! Includes: Transportation, double lobster bake, driver’s gratuity, Stonewall Kitchen, York Beach, dining room gratuities and taxes.
