Director's Report

- Basketball
 - All basketball teams are in progress
 - Championship Games will be at Alvirne High School on 2/14/15
 - B. Hamilton Day is on 2/15/15.
 - All Star Games will be held on this day
 - Basketball Banquet will be on 2/15/15 from 6pm-8pm at the CC
 - Junior and Senior Divisions are all invited for the Award Ceremony and celebration including a pizza party. Trophies will be handed out and Parent of the Year and Coach of the Year, and the Hank Center Sportsmanship Award to both an 8th grade boy and an 8th grade girl
 - The Instructional League run by Ed Peterson had its Varsity Clinic at Alvirne over the weekend. It was well run and the kids had a great time. The idea of running our Instructional League similar to the AHS Varsity Clinic has been suggested and will be considered for the future.
- Comedy Night –
 - January 24th, 2015
 - 254 people attended during the snow storm
 - We had a musician for the first time, George Lodge who was a welcomed addition to the event.

- Lacrosse –
 - Held final sign-ups on January 29th at the Rec. Center from 6pm -7:30pm
 - Had a coaches meeting and will plan for a second one before indoor practices begin.

- Snowman Contest –
 - Began getting submissions in.

- Movie Night–
 - Next Friday, February 13th.
 - Showing, “The Book of Life”

New Business

- 38th Annual MLK Basketball Tournament
 - 44 teams registered
 - 5th and 6th Grade Girls division is combined due to low numbers along with 7th and 8th grade girls.
 - Hosted at 4 sites; Hills Garrison, NWest, Community Center and Hudson Memorial School
 - Hudson Teams did very well in the tournament.
 - Proved to be a smooth event

Other Business

- Mick Regan talks about the Mals Pals Cool Running's Cardboard Sledding Contest on 2/15/15 at Benson's Park. This year there will be an adult division and a children's division.
- Sue LaRoche and Carl Dubois suggested that the music at the Comedy Show be turned down a little in the future.
- Carl Dubois addressed the Basketball Player Draft this season. He feels that the draft is working amazing and that the parody was phenomenal which was proved in the in the final scores being level.
- Dave Yates discussed being in contact with Summer Coordinator Frank Girginis who is getting geared up for the program. Chrissy Peterson has been posting Summer Program advertisements on FB to get people to start thinking about it.
- Dave discussed a donation that was made by Ken Blanchard for $800, that will go towards a piece of equipment at Benson's Park in his late wife's memory.
- Dave reached out for any assistance at the Basketball Banquet on 2/15/15 passing out pizza and drinks.
