Today you will travel to Ogunquit, Maine home to both Clay Hill Farm and the Ogunquit Playhouse. Your group will have a delicious lunch at Clay Hill Farm and then see a live performance of “The Producers.” Nestled on the back roads in Ogunquit, this unique place offers exceptional food and service. A restored old farmhouse; with gardens and bird sanctuaries abound Clay Hill Farm is usually only open for dinner but is now doing special lunches for Royal Tours! After lunch, you will travel to the Ogunquit Playhouse for a matinee show. The Playhouse will be showing “The Producers.”

Based on 1968 cult classic comedy, The Producers tells the story of theatrical producer Max Bialystock who realizes the road to his financial redemption lies in producing the worst musical ever written, raising 25,000% of the capital, and pocketing it all when the show is a one-night-only disaster. Aided and abetted by nebbish accountant named Leo Bloom, Bialystock options the rights to a “gay romp with Adolf and Eva.” Of course, if the show, by some insane stretch of credulity, were to become a hit, Bialystock and Bloom would be thrown in jail. And that’s exactly what happens.
